25th February 2022

Dear Parent/Carer,

Thank you to all of the parents who came to parents evenings this week and kept to time. There is a further parents evening on Tuesday 1st March next week. Please can you keep to the allocated time for the benefit of everyone.

Thank you to Year 4 and the ladies from the church for their Open the Book Assembly on Friday. It was great to learn about Jesus calling the first disciples. The harmony in the singing was great. Please note year 3 will start preparing their assembly this week which is due to be 'performed' on 11th March.

This coming week is a very busy week with our Book Week including World Book Day on Thursday. Your child will be given a World Book Day £1 token. We have a Book Fair arranged for 9th to 16th March.

Monday-	Tom the Taleteller
Tuesday-	Shared Reading - older children sharing a book with younger children
Wednesday-	Staff share their favourite stories
Thursday-	Dressing up and Little Gems joining us
Friday-	Summing up the whole week's work

Don't forget about the "Extreme read" and "Cosy read" competition.

Gold Award assembly is on Monday as usual.

The PTA is running a Pancake Event directly after school on Shrove Tuesday (1st March). Please see previous flyer for details.

Year 6 parents will receive notification of their allocated secondary school on 1st March.

Yours sincerely,

Gavin Beetham
