6th June 2025

Dear Parent/Carer,

It was lovely to see the children coming back refreshed after half term.

Well done to year 2 for a stunning Open the Book assembly on Jonah on Thursday. Year 1 and Year R will be preparing for their Open the Book Assembly over the next 2 weeks. (Their assembly will be on 19th June at 2pm).

Thank you to those who have completed the online form stating they are able to help out on the Work Party Day (Friday 13th June). There are still plenty of tasks we can complete if enough people sign up. Please follow the link to sign up. <https://forms.gle/CbVB6yh2Hg5ME88y8>

Members of class 4 delighted the Lighter Lunches crew on Tuesday by helping out with it at the chapel.

Though Gymnastics has started for Class 3 and 4 please remember it is not on this coming week but resumes on 17th June.

The year 5 clarinet taster lessons were great. If any wish to continue from these or to take up clarinet please contact AI for Music direct (put contact details in). A flyer regarding the music offering for the coming year will be out soon. Please watch out for it.

PTFA

As I write the weather is brightening up for the PTFA summer fayre which should be great. I can see lots of lovely cake waiting to be sold.

In other news from the PTFA- the sponsored walk has raised a massive £1,621.00. Thank you for your support. It was a really pleasant afternoon on the playing field with the children.

Yours sincerely

Gavin Beetham
